MilleniumAssociates Further Strengthens its Global Advisory Board with Senior Appointment by Naming Carel van der Spek, former member of the Management Board of F. van Lanschot Bankiers, as Latest Member

MilleniumAssociates AG, the Swiss based independent international M&A Advisory firm to the global financial services industry, has appointed Carel van der Spek as a member of its Global Advisory Board.

Carel van der Spek has accomplished an eminent career in the financial services industry. From 1996 until 2005 he was a member of the Board of Management of F. van Lanschot Bankiers N.V., Netherlands.

Ray Soudah, founder of MilleniumAssociates said, "Carel van der Spek is an extremely senior and well qualified professional and executive with a high level of experience in the financial services industry and with a detailed in-depth knowledge of the financial services sector in the Netherlands and in Europe at large. He is a respected and well-connected person and his addition will further strengthen our truly focussed and specialised advisory services and will considerably strengthen MilleniumAssociates' capabilities and reach particularly in the main financial markets in Europe".

Carel van der Spek stated, "Having known MilleniumAssociates for many years, I am delighted to be associated with this truly independent advisory firm with a prime international reputation and global reach, and which, whilst Swiss based, has demonstrated its ability to serve the financial services industry, and in particular asset management, in a specialist and professional way on a global basis".
