About Corporate LiveWire:

Corporate LiveWire aim to be the number one resource for news and developments across the corporate and business community. With daily updates, leading affiliations and a team of journalists exploring every region, the resource offers regular up to date content on an array of subject areas such as corporate transactions, international markets, business strategy and changes in legislation.

The portal also incorporates a unique deal section looking at transactions happening around the world. Companies involved in mergers, acquisitions, IPO's, MBO's and raising finance are explored in detail and a range of transactions are covered from small local mergers to headline cross border acquisitions. The section also reflects on the effect these deals will have on the sector and the wider corporate economy.
