MilleniumAssociates further strengthens its green and sustainable transaction network in appointing Bente E. Engesland as International Partner and member of its Global Advisory Board

MilleniumAssociates AG, the Swiss and UK based independent international M&A and Corporate Finance Advisory firm has appointed Bente E. Engesland as an International Partner and the latest member of its Global Advisory Board.

A seasoned international communications expert, Ms Engesland has extensive international experience across a number of industries from energy and finance to media and marketing. Over her prominent career, Ms Engesland has developed an extensive global network across the climate and impact investing sector, developing a particular expertise within ESG, sustainability and green investments, also holding board positions in climate and transport as well as cybersecurity, transparency and R&D.

Ray Soudah, founder of MilleniumAssociates said, "We are delighted to welcome Bente E. Engesland as an International Partner and member of our Global Advisory Board. She is an exceptionally well qualified media and communications executive combined with strong international experience, in particular in the green and sustainable sector. Her expertise and experience will strengthen the firm's capabilities as well as boost our global efforts to expand our advisory services particularly as Switzerland and Norway are both intending to expand ESG financial services as a core offering".

Expressing her response to this appointment, Ms Engesland stated: "I am delighted to be appointed an International Partner as well as joining MilleniumAssociates' Global Advisory board, the company has a strong reputation as a leading independent M&A adviser in financial services, infrastructure and increasingly green energy and I look forward to working with them in developing this further and contributing to the success of their clients and investors alike".
