MilleniumAssociates AG, the Swiss and UK-based corporate finance and M&A advisory firm, has teamed up with Sasfin Corporate Finance to deliver mergers and acquisitions and corporate finance opportunities to their respective clients.

Sasfin Corporate Finance is part of the entrepreneur-focused Sasfin Bank, based in South Africa. This collaboration will enable both parties to expand their international market coverage across Europe, the UK and Africa, they said, in a statement.

Noah Greenhill, the head of Sasfin Corporate Finance, explained that the partnership will see both parties providing transactional support and business referrals

Ray Soudah, the founder of MilleniumAssociates, added: “We chose Sasfin Corporate Finance as our partner as we share a similar focus.

“We are confident that this collaboration will enable both of us to further improve and expand our client service offering as well as enhance our ability to support our domestic, regional and international clients with their global M&A requirements.”

Recently, MilleniumAssociates has expanded its mandate outside the financial services industry, and the wealth management sector in particular, to entrepreneurial business owners as well as the manufacturing, industrial and resources business sectors.
